Introduction

- A. Some key points from last session: Miracles and Jesus
1. Biblical claims about miracles (e.g. OT examples, Jesus' works & resurrection, fulfilled prophecy)
 2. The purpose of miracles
 3. Types of miracles: Creation, Sustenance, Coincidence, Predictive, Suspension)
- B. The resurrection of Jesus: an example of a predictive and suspension miracle (see previous session outline for more).
1. Historical data to explain (e.g. Jesus' crucifixion; disciples' fear and subsequent boldness to the point of death; Jesus' burial in a "new tomb" [Mt 27:60; Lk 23:53] owned by a named and described individual, Joseph of Arimathea, a member of the Sanhedrin [Mt 27:47-60; Mk 15:42-46; Lk 23:50-53; Jn 19:38-42]).
 2. Biblical testimony of eyewitness accounts.
 3. Post-resurrection appearances (period of _____ days, in different settings, on at least _____ occasions)
 4. Jesus' disciples did NOT expect the resurrection.
 - a. They did not understand the OT prophecies.
 - b. Jewish beliefs about resurrection expected only a resurrection at the _____ of the world, and only a _____ resurrection, not the resurrection of an _____.
 5. Implausible alternative explanations:
 - a. Jesus not really dead.
 - b. Disciples went to the wrong tomb.
 - c. Resurrection appearances were wish-fulfillment hallucinations.
 - d. Christians simply borrowed the ideas from the mystery religions (M.R.).
 - (1) Chronological problems: The terminology of the M.R. (e.g. resurrection) is later than the 1st century.
 - (2) Conceptual problems: The M.R. did NOT have genuine "resurrections" of god(s) given embodied life in this world.
- C. This session's primary focus: Why should we trust the Bible's claims?
1. The Bible's _____ witness (e.g. its claims about itself; its overall coherence; its uniqueness; the trustworthiness of its authors; its fulfilled prophecies; its personal and social power).
 2. The Bible's _____ witness (e.g. the confirmations of its accuracy and authenticity through ancient testimony, historical analysis, and archaeological discoveries; the plausibility of the professed origin of its books and their selection authoritative books [the "canon"]; and the reliability of its transmission through time).

I. Prominent Skeptic Claims about the Bible

- A. The Bible is an error-filled collection of purely-human writings.

¹ The class webpage provides access to handouts (with blanks filled-in), a "Question/Answer" section, and links to helpful resources, including books and Internet resources. Please feel free to submit questions.

- B. The Pentateuch (first five books) is a product of different editors from four source traditions, not Moses (who presumably lived around 1450 BC or perhaps 1250 BC):
1. J (Yahwist source) written c. 950 BC.
 2. E (Elohist source) written c. 850 BC.
 3. D (Deuteronomist source) written c. 600 BC in Jerusalem during religious reform.
 4. P (Priestly source) written c. 500 BC by Jewish priests in Babylonian exile.
- C. There are no genuine predictive prophecies. “Prophecies” written after the event.
- D. The New Testament Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John):
1. Are filled with inconsistencies and are unreliable as accounts of the life of a historical Jesus.
 2. The early church retroactively concocted a “divine” portrait of Jesus: Jesus is a legend. The real “historical Jesus” was very different from the church’s “Christ of faith.”²
 3. The early church used the mystery religions to construct their view of Jesus and Christianity.
- E. Other ancient “Gospels” were written about Jesus that were illegitimately suppressed by the early church (e.g. The Gospel of Thomas, The Gospel of Peter, The Gospel of Mary).³
- F. Since no original New Testament documents exist, the available copies have been substantially altered and are unreliable.

II. The Bible’s Character and Claims

- A. God’s revelation was given in a variety of ways (e.g. prophets, burning bush, urim & thummim; dreams; visions). Note Deut 10:2; Ex 20:1; Lev 1:1; Josh 1:8; Neh 13:1; Heb 1:1.
- B. God’s revelation was incarnate in Jesus Christ
1. Jn. 1:1,14,18 “In the beginning was the Word [logos], and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.... And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.... No man has seen God at any time; the only begotten God, who is in the bosom of the Father, He has explained [<exegesis] Him.”
 2. Col. 1:15 “And He [Christ] is the image [icon] of the invisible God . . .”
 3. Heb. 1:1-3 “God, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways, has in these last days spoken unto us by His Son whom He appointed heir of all things . . . [the Son is] the image of His glory and the exact representation [charakter] of his nature”
- C. A portion of God’s revelation was preserved in scripture.
1. Moses wrote the words of God (Ex 17:14; 24:3-4; 34:27; Deut 31:24-26).
 2. Many references to “scripture” (e.g. Lk 4:21; Jn 2:22; Jn 5:39; Jn 10:35; Acts 1:16; Rom 9:17; 1 Tim 4:13; 2 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:20; 3:14-16).
 3. Scripture viewed as authoritative: “It is written” (e.g. Matt 4:4,7,10)
 4. Scripture offers eyewitness testimony along with God’s “inspiration” (Jn 20:30-31; 1 Jn 1:3; 2 Pet 1:16-21; 2 Tim 3:14-17).

Jn 20:30-31 “Many other signs therefore Jesus also performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these have been written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in His name.” (cf. Jn 21:24-25)

² The Jesus Seminar, a group of more liberal scholars, published The Five Gospels: What Did Jesus Really Say? The Search for the Authentic Words of Jesus (1996). Based on their votes, they determined that over one-half of the Gospel statements attributed to Jesus were NOT actually statements of Jesus. Only about 20% of the Jesus-Gospel statements were regarded as something Jesus undoubtedly or probably said. A key figure in this group is John Dominic Crossan who frequently appears on TV episodes dealing with Jesus and early Christianity. He taught at DePaul University for many years.

1 Jn 1:3 ³ what we have seen and heard we proclaim to you also, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. ⁴ These things we write, so that our joy may be made complete.

2 Pet 1: ¹⁶ For we did not follow cleverly devised tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. ¹⁷ For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, such an utterance as this was made to Him by the Majestic Glory, “This is My beloved Son with whom I am well-pleased”— ¹⁸ and we ourselves heard this utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹ So we have the prophetic word made more sure, to which you do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts. ²⁰ But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation, ²¹ for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2 Tim 3:14-17 ¹⁴ You, however, continue in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you have learned them, ¹⁵ and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; ¹⁷ so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

III. The Bible’s Historical Framework (See the chart on “The Bible’s Historical Framework” and Paul’s concise history in Acts 13:15-41)

A. Old Testament Era:

1. Abraham (c. 2000 BC) > Isaac > Jacob > Joseph.
2. Egyptian bondage; deliverance by Moses (c. 1450 or 1250 BC); and God’s covenant with Israel.
3. Conquest of Canaan and the period of Judges (c. 450 years).
4. Kings Saul (c. 1065 BC), David, and Solomon.
5. Northern Kingdom (“Israel”): Eventual defeat by Assyria in 722 BC.
6. Southern Kingdom (“Judah”): Eventual fall of Jerusalem and captivity in Babylon in 586 BC.
7. Rebuilding the Jerusalem temple begins (ordered by the Persian Cyrus) and is finished during the reign of Darius (c. 516 BC). [Ezra 1:1; Ezra 5-6; Zach 1:16-17]
8. Last of the Hebrew prophets about 400 BC (e.g. Nehemiah, Malachi).

B. New Testament Era (birth of John the baptizer and Jesus).

1. Jesus’ death/resurrection on Passover weekend (AD30).
2. Day of Pentecost (50 days later) and the birth of the church (AD30). [Acts 2]
3. Paul’s missionary journeys (AD45-58) and death (c. AD67).
 - a. Paul’s trial under Gallio (Acts 18:12-17) on 2nd missionary journey.
 - b. The “Gallio Inscription,” discovered in Delphi in 1905: From Emperor Claudius to “Junius Gallio my friend and proconsul of Achaia.”
 - c. Gallio was proconsul from June AD51 to May AD52.
4. Paul’s letters (AD48-67).
5. Gospels of Mark (AD62), Luke (AD62-65), and Matthew (AD68-85).

7. Execution of Paul in Rome (AD68).
8. Roman destruction of Jerusalem (AD70).
9. John’s Gospel (AD80-95) and Revelation (AD95).

C. Summary characteristics: Bible covers about 1600 years; 66 books; about 40 authors; 3 languages; many literary styles; yet a unified message of God’s salvation.

IV. Dates of Earliest New Testament Books (see chart on “Early New Testament Timeline”)

A. Paul’s message

1. Early interaction with other apostles
 - a. Paul converted AD33-35. Miraculous encounter with the resurrected Christ on the way to persecute Christians in Damascus (see Acts 9).

- b. “After three years,” went to Jerusalem and visited with Peter and James (Gal 1:11-20).
- c. “After fourteen years,” went to Jerusalem again and was given “the right hand of fellowship” from James, Peter, and John (Cf. Gal 2:1-10; Acts 15:1-35). (* The message of Paul and the original apostles was apparently the same!)

2. Galatians: Written AD48-50

Gal 1:1 Paul, an apostle (not sent from men nor through the agency of man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead),...

- 3. I Corinthians (esp. note ch. 15): Written AD54-56 in Ephesus (1 Cor 16:8).
 - a. Corinth church likely founded on 2nd missionary journey in AD51-52 (note the Gallio Inscription discussed above).
 - b. Resurrection message is already well established (1 Cor 15:1-4).

1 Cor 15: Now I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, ²by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. ³For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

- c. The resurrection appearances (1 Cor 15:5-9)

1 Cor 15: ⁵ and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶After that He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep; ⁷then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles; ⁸and last of all, as to one untimely born, He appeared to me also. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, and not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

4. I Thessalonians (esp. 1:9-10; 4:13-14): Written AD50-52

⁹For they themselves report about us what kind of a reception we had with you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God, ¹⁰and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, that is Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath to come.

B. The Gospels of Mark and Luke.

- 1. Neither Mark nor Luke were Jesus’ chosen apostles.
- 2. Mark traditionally the earliest (c. AD60-63).
- 3. Luke (c. AD62-68)
 - a. Apparently written before Luke’s book of Acts (Lk 1:1-4; Acts 1:1)
 - b. Acknowledges earlier written accounts of Jesus (Lk 1:1-4).

Lk 1:1-4 ¹Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile an account of the things accomplished among us, ²just as they were handed down to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word, ³it seemed fitting for me as well, having investigated everything carefully from the beginning, to write it out for you in consecutive order, most excellent Theophilus; ⁴so that you may know the exact truth about the things you have been taught.

- 4. Mark and Luke were close associates of Jesus’ apostles.
 - a. Irenaeus, disciple of Polycarp who was a disciple of John, says that Mark was “a disciple and interpreter of Peter.”
 - b. Papias (died c. 155), an associate of Polycarp who was a disciple of John, says that Mark “had become the interpreter of Peter.”
 - c. Eusebius (263-339) claims that Clement (c. 150-215) and Papias say that Mark was a “follower of Peter” and that Mark’s gospel “obtained the sanction of his [Peter’s] authority” (Ecclesiastical History, Book 2, Ch. 15).

B. Some intersections

AD6-7	Revolt of Judas	Acts 5:37 "... Judas the Galilean arose in the days of the census ..."	"... a Galilean ... Judas incited his countrymen to revolt ..." (Josephus, Jewish War 2:118).
	Execution of John the Baptist	Mk 6:14-29; Matt 14:1-12 "Herod had John arrested ... had John beheaded ..."	"Now, some of the Jews thought that the destruction of Herod's army came from God, and that very justly, as a punishment of what he did against John, that was called the Baptist; for Herod slew him" (Josephus, Jewish Antiquities 18:116).
AD30	Jesus' crucifixion	Cf. Mk 15:15 "Wishing to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas for them, and after having Jesus scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified." 	Execution of	Cf. Mk 15:15	"Christus ... suffered the extreme

⁴ This type of information is provided in many apologetics texts, including The New Dictionary of Christian Apologetics and Lee Strobel's The Case for the Real Jesus.

	Jesus		penalty ... at the hands of ... Pontius Pilate” (Tacitus, Annals 15:44).
AD44	Death of Agrippa	Cf. Acts 12:20-23. “On an appointed day Herod, having put on his royal apparel, took his seat ... ²² The people kept crying out, “The voice of a god and not of a man!” ²³ And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.”	“Clad in a garment woven completely of silver ... he entered the theatre at daybreak.... His flatterers addressed him as a god ... the king did not rebuke him ... felt a stab of pain in his heart ... after five days ... he departed this life” (Jewish Antiquities 19:344-349).
AD49	Expulsion of Jews from Rome	Cf. Acts 18:2 “And he [Paul] found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, having recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome.”	"Since the Jews constantly made disturbances at the instigation of Chrestus, he expelled them from Rome” (Seutonius, The Life of Claudius 25, 4)
	James, brother of Jesus, killed	Early leader of Jerusalem church (Acts 15:13-29; Gal 2:9-10) and “the Lord’s brother” (Mk 6:3; Gal 1:19).	“[Ananus] assembled the sanhedrin of judges, and brought before them the brother of Jesus, who was called Christ, whose name was James, and ... delivered them to be stoned; (Josephus, Jewish Antiquities , 20, ch. 9:200)

D. Contrasts with another “Gospel”: The Gospel of Thomas

“Other” Gospel Materials	Book(s)	Date of Origin	Comments
Gospel of Thomas (discovered as part of Nag Hammadi writings in 1945)	114 “hidden” sayings of Jesus.	The Jesus Seminar’s Five Gospels (1993) claims AD 50. Elaine Pagels claims AD 80-90. BUT ... >>>>>>>>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 52 texts dating from c. 350. • Earliest references are from Hippolytus (170-236) and Origen (185-254) (New Dictionary of Christian Apologetics 290) • Thomas shows awareness of 14-15 NT books; The Epistles of Ignatius (110) does not show awareness of even half the NT. • Thomas quotes from Gospel of John, which was

			probably not written until the mid-90s. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thomas follows distinctive forms of the Diatessaron of Tatian not written until AD160+. • Thomas the person is referred to as “Judas Thomas”—a designation used only in the Syrian church, which suggests that it was not written in the 1st century Palestinian church.
